

Bacon, H.

March 27, 1877

Camden 3/27/77

Dear Sir:

Yours recd. I am sorry you took offense as the Postal. I am sure I don't know him else I could have warned it. If you had fulfilled your part of agreement I should not have been under the necessity of sending it.

In regard to the Carls. stamp you took it at your own risk & I told you I did not guarantee it.

I am not so very anxious to sell my stamps & I should not have sent them I did if I had foreseen this,

To Henry Chapman Jr. Esq.

Yours &c
A. J. Brown

Bacon

no one.

He is either a fool or he takes me to be one.

Henry Chapman Jr. Esq.,
2043 Tower St.,
City.